Commandant's Desk

Character is the true measure of a person's strength. It is built not in moments of comfort but through discipline, integrity, perseverance and the courage to do what is right.

At Bhonsala Military School, character building is at the heart of our mission. While academic excellence and physical fitness are essential, it is a strong character that shapes responsible citizens, ethical leaders and patriotic individuals. Values such as honesty, respect, responsibility, self-discipline and compassion form the foundation of every Ramdandees journey.

Character is developed through consistent actions, thoughtful decisions and a willingness to learn from every experience. Every challenge faced, every responsibility accepted and every act of kindness strengthens one's personality and prepares an individual for the responsibilities of life. I encourage all Ramdandees to uphold the highest standards of conduct, lead by example and remain committed to the values that define our institution. Remember, achievements may earn recognition, but character earns respect, trust and lasting success.

Let us continue to strive for excellence not only in academics and sports but also in building a character that inspires others and serve the nation with pride.

Jai Hind!

Warm Regards,

Col Sandeep Puri (Retd.)

Commandant

Academic Excellence

Academic Excellence and Assessments

Bhonsala Military School ushered in the Academic Year 2026–27 with great enthusiasm as the Ramdandees of Classes VI to XII reported to the campus from 8th June to 27th June 2026. The Ramdandees were warmly welcomed by their seniors with welcome cards and flowers, while parents accompanying their wards were also greeted by the school fraternity, creating a warm and hospitable atmosphere.

To ensure a smooth transition into the new academic session, class-wise contact sessions were conducted for the Ramdandees and their parents. These sessions familiarised them with the school's academic programme, discipline, daily routine, co-curricular activities and expectations for the year ahead.

The warm reception and informative contact sessions marked a memorable beginning to the academic year, inspiring every Ramdandee to embark on a journey of learning, discipline, leadership and excellence

Inspiring Minds, Shaping Futures

A Motivational Guest Lecture by Commander Paramdeep Singh Soodan, a renowned Positive Change Leader and Mentor, was conducted on 16th June 2026 at the Dr. Moonje Hall. The session inspired the Ramdandees of Classes IX, X, and XII to cultivate a positive mindset, embrace self-discipline, and strive for excellence. Commander Soodan motivated the Ramdandees to cultivate a positive mindset, face challenges with confidence, and uphold the values of integrity, perseverance, and leadership. The inspiring session left a lasting impression, reinforcing the importance of character building and nation-building.

Incomplete Feelings

O my sister, forever wear your smile,
Like a moonbeam glowing,
gentle and bright.
May your heart forever blossom with joy,
Wrapped in love's everlasting light.

2

Your smile is the sunshine of my soul;
Tears have no place within your eyes.
You are my anger, my peace, my calm—
May you never let your spirit lose its light.

3

Keep blooming, keep laughing,
Like flowers kissed by
the morning dew.
You are my moon in the
endless sky,
And I, a humble star,
shining for you.

4

How do I tell you, my dearest one,
The depth of the love I carry inside?
How can I make you truly understand
The affection I forever hide?.

5

May your memories walk beside me,
Through every mile of life's long way,
Guiding me gently on this journey
Until I reach my final day.

6

Though the destination
seems so near,
Your absence still leaves
an endless space.

7

For every passing moment
whispers softly
How deeply I long for your embrace.

BOOK REVIEW

The BHAGAVAD GITA

A timeless guide to life

Book Review by:
Rd. Manu Datta
Class: IX C

ABOUT THE BOOK

- Title : The Bhagavad Gita
- Author : Traditionally attributed to Sage Vyasa (as part of the Mahabharata)
- Genre : Spiritual Philosophy / Religious Scripture
- Original Language : Sanskrit

"You have the right to perform your duty, but you are not entitled to the fruits of your actions."

— Bhagavad Gita (2.47)

SUMMARY

The Bhagavad Gita consists of 18 chapters and 700 verses. It is a dialogue between Lord Krishna and Arjuna on the battlefield of Kurukshetra. Krishna teaches Arjuna about Karma Yoga (the path of selfless action), Bhakti Yoga (the path of devotion) and Jnana Yoga (the path of knowledge). He emphasises that true success lies in performing one's duty with sincerity and devotion while remaining detached from the results.

THEMES

- Duty and responsibility
- Selfless action
- Faith and devotion
- Self-control and inner peace
- The eternal nature of the soul
- Leadership and ethical decision-making

WHAT I LIKED

The Bhagavad Gita offers practical wisdom that is relevant even today. The simple yet profound conversation between Krishna and Arjuna makes deep philosophical ideas easy to understand and apply in our daily lives. It inspires us to stay calm, make right choices and focus on personal growth.

LESSONS LEARNED

We should perform our duties sincerely without worrying about the outcome. It teaches us to be confident, maintain emotional balance, respect others and live with integrity, compassion and humility. The Gita helps us overcome fear, doubt and negativity through wisdom, faith and selfless action.

CONCLUSION

The Bhagavad Gita is much more than a religious scripture; it is a timeless guide to leading a meaningful and purposeful life. Its universal teachings continue to inspire people of all ages and backgrounds. Whether one seeks spiritual understanding, moral guidance or practical life lessons, the Bhagavad Gita offers invaluable insights. It is a book that everyone should read at least once in their lives.

"When the mind is controlled and pure, the intellect becomes steady and one experiences inner peace."

— Bhagavad Gita (6.26)

🧘 Celebrating the 12th International Day of Yoga 🧘

The 12th International Day of Yoga was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 21st June 2026 at the Samarth Ground. The programme was graced by Chief Guest Mr. Jagdish Gaikwad, a renowned Yoga Instructor.

The event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of the School authorities, teaching and non-teaching staff, ATOs, Bhavan Masters and the Ramdandees. Under the expert guidance of the Chief Guest, the Ramdandees enthusiastically performed various yoga asanas and breathing exercises. The programme highlighted the importance of yoga in promoting physical fitness, mental well-being and self-discipline. The celebration concluded with a renewed commitment to adopting yoga as a way of life and embracing its timeless values for a healthy, balanced and disciplined future

On the occasion of the 12th International Day of Yoga, a श्रमदान activity was conducted on 21st June 2026 to promote the importance of cleanliness, environmental responsibility and community service. The Ramdandees enthusiastically participated in the cleanliness drive by cleaning the school premises and surrounding areas.

The activity instilled the values of dignity of labour, teamwork and civic responsibility while reinforcing the message that a clean environment is essential for a healthy body and mind.

The श्रमदान activity concluded with a renewed commitment by the Ramdandees to maintain cleanliness and contribute towards creating a cleaner, healthier and more sustainable environment.

🌄 A Trek Through History and Responsibility 🌱

An enriching One-Day Educational Trek to Hatgad Fort was organized by the Bhonsala Adventure Foundation, Nashik, on 27th June 2026 for the Ramdandees of Class VIII. Blending history, adventure, and environmental stewardship, the programme included a water cistern cleaning drive and a fort cleanliness campaign. As they explored the historic fort, the Ramdandees gained valuable insights into its rich heritage while actively contributing to its preservation.

The initiative fostered environmental awareness, teamwork, and a deep sense of social responsibility, inspiring the young Ramdandees to become conscientious custodians of the nation's heritage. The trek proved to be a meaningful learning experience, leaving the participants with cherished memories and a renewed commitment to preserving both history and nature.
